C. 2

He took a business course at Evergreen Business College, in Bloomington, from which he graduated in 1885. He commenced his business career in partnership with his brother, Ward B., the two purchasing the herd of short horn cattle owned by their father. After two years he bought his brother's interest, and has since carried it on alone. He has still a good herd on the place and in addition he has also been interested in breeding Clydesdale and roadster horses, in which he has met with a good degree of success. On his place he has a fine flock of Shropshire and Rambowillet sheep, which he raises and sells for breeding purposes. He has also a large and well selected herd of Poland China hogs, which constitute an important part of his business. In the raising of fine stock he has done much for his native county in giving it the excellent reputation it bears throughout the country in this regard. He has spent large sums of money in the improvement of domestic animals, having spared no pains to raise the standard of his herds, buying his breeding animals from the best known herds in the country. He now owns the imported horse, Heirloom, imported by Ogilvie, of Janesville, Wisconsin, and has also in his flock of sheep a number of imported animals.

Mr. Jones' farm is known as the Home Park Place, and is one of the finest farms in McLean county. The house and barn were erected by his father at a cost of about seventeen thousand dollars and are models of convenience and architecture. In politics Mr. Jones gives his support to the Republican party. Fraternally, he is a member of Success Lodge, No. 480, K. P., of Towanda, in which lodge he has held office.

JOHN N. SCOGIN is the well-known baggage master at the Union station in Bloomington, and has been a trusted employe of the Chicago & Alton Railroad since 1891. He is a native of McLean county, born three miles southwest of Bloomington, June 22, 1853, and is a son of Andrew W. and Eliza (Low) Scogin. The father was born in Licking county, Ohio, in 1823, and after the death of the grandfather, Abel Scogin, which occurred in that county, he came with his uncle, Joseph Wakefield, to Blooming Grove, McLean county, Illinois, in 1837, when only fourteen years of age. Here his uncle took up a tract of new land, and in connection with its improvement and cultivation, he worked at the carpenter's trade. Under his direction Mr. Scogin learned the rudiments of that occupation, and later worked on the first Sherman House in Chicago, under Mr. Updyke, who offered him a half block in the heart of the city for his summer's work, but he would not accept it. Returning to Bloomington, he remained here until enlisting for a short time in the Mexican war. On his arrival at Springfield, however, he found it was long-term men that were wanted, so resigned his commission as captain of a company that he might carry out a large contract at Randolph's Grove which he had previously made. He first married Miss Elizabeth Carr, a daughter of Thomas Jefferson Carr, of Randolph's Grove. She died at the end of a year, and he afterward married Miss Eliza Low, of Blooming Grove township, McLean county, a daughter of Nathan Low, one of the earliest pioneers of that locality. After his second marriage Mr. Scogin located in Blooming Grove township and became the owner of four hundred acres of valuable land, on which he successfully engaged in general farming and stock-raising until his death. The wife and mother, who was a consistent member of the Christian church, passed away in 1863. They left six children, all of whom are still living, namely: Lee, who is living southwest of Bloomington; Jay, a carpenter of St. Louis, Missouri; John, our subject; Frank, who lives on the old homestead with his sister; Hettie, wife of Oled Lash, who own the home farm; and Joseph, who resides near Colorado Springs, Colorado.

John Scogin received a good practical education in the common schools near his boyhood home, and on leaving the farm came to Bloomington, where he embarked in the draying and transfer business for himself at the age of eighteen years. He continued in that line for a number of years, during which time he built up a good business and used three teams. On selling out in 1891, he entered the freight department of the Chicago & Alton Railroad Company, at Bloomington; a year later was advanced to the position of assistant baggage master at the Union station, and in 1898, on the resignation of the baggage master, he was appointed to that position, which he is now so capably and satisfactorily filling. He has charge of the all baggage of the Chicago & Alton, and also the junction part of the Lake Erie & Western, and the Big Four Railroads, and handles more than all the other roads coming into Bloomington put together, as the Chicago & Alton at this place does the largest amount of business in the west outside of St. Louis and Chicago.

In 1873, Mr. Scogin was united in marriage with Miss Nannie Kinzell, of Bloomington, who died in 1895, leaving one daughter, Dell, now the wife of James M. Hull, of Osawatomie, Kansas. He was again married, January 18, 1899, his second union being with Miss Jennie McEvoy, of Bloomington. They have a pleasant home at No. 1200 West Front street, and attend and support the First Presbyterian church. Socially, Mr. Scogin is a member of Evergreen City Lodge, No. 265, I. O. O. F., and Shabona Tribe, No. 18, I. O. R. M., and has passed through all the chairs of both organizations. He is very popular in business and social circles and wherever known is held in high regard.

MRS. EMILY PRAY is a well-known resident of Empire township, where she owns and successfully manages an excellent farm of five hundred and forty acres on section 7, and in the conduct of her affairs since her husband's death has displayed remarkable business ability. Her course has ever been such as to command the respect and admiration of the entire community, and she has thoroughly demonstrated the fact that a woman is well qualified to carry on a farm successfully.

Mrs. Pray has spent her entire life in McLean county, her birth occurring in Empire township, and she is a representative of one of the most honored and prominent pioneer families, which was founded here in 1835. Her father, James Bishop, was born in Fauquier county, Virginia, April 2, 1809, and was a son of John Bishop, who was born in the same state of English ancestry, and about 1809, removed with his family to Ohio, becoming one of the first settlers of Clarke county, where he spent the remainder of his life.

Tips on Using the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index

- To avoid text wrapping to multiple lines, it may be necessary to select a smaller text size in your browser depending on your monitor's screen resolution. In most browsers, text size can be changed under the View menu.
- To print the list of marriages from the results screen, set your printer's page orientation to landscape.
- Illinois marriages were not required to be performed in the county of the bride's or groom's residence. If your search does not find a marriage in the county you expected it to occur, try selecting STATEWIDE in the location option box.
- The Illinois Statewide Marriage Index is an on-going project and does not currently include marriage records for all counties in Illinois or complete date spans for some counties. Click here for a list of counties and date spans included in the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index.
